October is always special because my birthday is in this month and for the past dozen years we have done a special Halloween gig!!! Can't wait.

Philly guitar show is early this year the first weekend of November so put it on your calendar

Ovation tells me they are taking custom orders but have yet to get me prices of several pieces.....

If you are interested in a custom Ovation or Adamas guitar please send me your specs and I can get it priced out for you. There is still a workforce in Connecticut building guitars!!!! Maybe they can make your dream come true here is the current Adamas price
